

To whom it may concern,

Nicholas Marc Lawson

I write to confirm that the above-named worked as a paid intern at Automobili Lamborghini S.p.A. from the 1st June until the 30th November 2013.

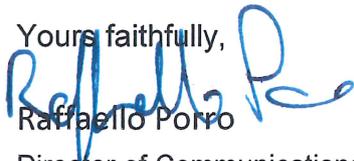

During his 6 months with the company, Nicholas was attached to the public relations department where he was responsible for collecting global press articles concerning both our own products as well as those of our competitors and creating weekly reports on the same for our board of directors. Other responsibilities delegated to him included organising and accompanying visits to our factory for international journalists and other important visitors; preparing and issuing press releases; creating reports for specific media publications; supervising customer shipments and contributing towards the organisation of various corporate events.

Throughout the time he was with us, we found Nicholas to be hard working, flexible and willing to work on any project that was assigned to him. He demonstrated a high level of commitment, organisation and reliability and he worked extremely well both independently and as a team player. In addition, being fluent in both the English and Italian languages proved to be an enormous asset to the company as did his excellent communication skills generally.

Should you require any additional information about Nicholas's internship at Automobili Lamborghini S.p.A., then I would ask that you please not hesitate to contact me directly.

In conclusion, I would highly recommend Nicholas Lawson as a candidate for a position within any organisation.

Yours faithfully,

Raffaello Porro
